Welcome to Hadeland

The Mayors of Hadeland:
Per Ole Rønning, Rigmor Aasrud Jahren and Harald Nessjøen.

Hadeland, Oslo's closest neighbour to the North, consists of the districts of Gran, Jevnaker and Lunner. The area has a population of 26.500, with most people living in the towns and villages of Jevnaker, Harestua, Roa, Lunner, Gran, Jaren and Brandbu.

Hadeland seems tailor-made for holidays to rejuvenate and restore both mind and body. Just a short trip away by car or train – Hadeland!

On one of Hadeland's many sunny days there are few places with more to offer:

Bathing, walking, cycling, fishing, riding.

We can also offer art galleries, potteries, museums, visit Steinhuset (the stonehouse), damask weaving and silversmith's workshop.

Those famous Vikings, Halvdan the Black, Harald the Fair Hair and Håkon Håkonsen all had one thing in common – their love for Hadeland! With its central location, beautiful countryside and mild climate, it's not surprising!

Hadeland was the land of the Hades – the warriors. Incidentally, one of the attractions of Hadeland Folk Museum is the grave-mound of Halvdan the Black.
