

PuzzleWise #3: “Scandinavian Proverbs”

Julie Hanson, Hadeland Lag member

Instructions: Refer to the August issue of BRUA to help you complete the sentences in A through I below. Then transfer the numbered letters to the corresponding boxes in the grid at the bottom of the page. A Scandinavian Proverb appears! The proverb will appear in the next issue of BRUA and a complete solution is available now at <https://www.hadeland.org/puzzles/>

A) The 2021 October ø s t S a m i n g featured a river and a haunted trolley tour. 10 7 20 31 3 8 44 25

B) Scholarships are available for single classes that explore Norwegian history or culture, as well as for language camps. must be no older than 23 to qualify.
 1 2 40 37 16

C) In “Tales of the Bear and the Fox”, we learn why bears are afraid of p s and how bears got their stubby tails. 33 21 45

D) If you follow the Norwegian saying, “skriv deg det bak øret, så s k e du det”, avoid using a permanent marker! 38 30 18

E) Ole Gamme wrote his Hadeland Today column on July 22, 2021, the 10-year anniversary of a r r r attack in Norway.
 41 17 29 36 19 11

F) The women’s beach handball team from this country made the news when they wore “improper clothing”—shorts instead of bikini bottoms! r a .
 34 43 35 28

G) When the steamship “Norge” sank west of Scotland in 1904, it was the worst commercial passenger ship disaster to occur in the i c Ocean until the Titanic sank in 1912.
 26 27 24 12 22 15

H) Two main types of rock—one an almost black volcanic rock and the other a bright r limestone—make up the walls of the 12th century Sister Churches in Granavollen. 9 5 6

I) No need for g ! You’re almost e !
 42 32 39 4 23 14 13

1	2	3		4	5	6		7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18	r	19		20	21	22	23	24	25		26	27
28	29	30	31		32	33	34		35	36	37	38	39	40	41		42	43	44	45	.			