

PuzzleWise #5: “Scandinavian Proverbs”
Julie Hanson, Hadeland Lag member

Instructions: Refer to the February 2022 issue of BRUA to help you complete the sentences in A through H below. Then transfer the numbered letters to the corresponding boxes in the grid at the bottom of the page. A Scandinavian Proverb appears! The proverb will appear in the next issue of BRUA and a complete solution is available now at <https://www.hadeland.org/puzzles/>

A) The February 2022 issue of Brua provided timely information about the Winter Olympics! Hadelanders who competed in ski jumping include Sverre Fredheim, who was born in Gran but competed for the U.S. in the 1936 Olympics, and Lars Grini, who won bronze on the “ hill” (officially called “large hill”) in the 1968 Winter Olympics. 28 29 30

B) Which country won the most medals at the 2022 Winter Olympics? No, this answer can’t be found in the February issue of Brua, but surely you know the answer! r y .

D) The lags that make up the “Seven + Lags” will hold their own meetings this summer. Hadeland Lag expects to hold an in-person e r n in Chippewa County, Minnesota, in late August. 11 27 22 23 24 26

E) Hadeland Lag’s membership in December of 2021 was 452; the majority of those members are in the United States (369), with a significant number in Norway (81) and a number (one each) in Canada and the United Kingdom. 17 18 19 20 21

F) “Fishing in stirred/troubled water” is hardly a modern saying; the Greeks described it as early as the year 424 B.C. The Norwegians use the phrase “ k i rort vann” when someone uses a confused situation for their own benefit. 7 12 15 14

G) Now that she’s 18 years of age, Her Royal Highness Princess Ingrid Alexandra will begin to perform some official tasks. Alexandra is c in line for the Norwegian throne, after her father, Crown Prince Haakon. 31 9 6 10 34

H) This last one is easy, so don’t about it. 1 2 3 4 5
